In the Sunshine

The wide porches invite you to spend those hours in the open when you lack the urge for strenuous play.

You read a book or magazine, perhaps the latest paper from home telling of the severe cold, sleet or snow of the northern winter . . . . then you move your chair, for the warm, bright sunshine has crept over the page before you.

Our Social Life

THE spacious parlors and porches of the HAVEN HOTEL offer appropriate settings,, not only for those little events that go to make up the social life of the hotel, but for the more formal receptions and concerts that are a feature of the winter season.

The hotel's excellent orchestra furnishes delightful music during the dinner hour, and later in the evening rythmic strains of the latest popular music lead your steps to the dance floor--on Sunday evenings there is a Special Concert Program.

In the basement is a four-chair barber shop, and adjoining, a Ladies' Beauty Parlor, presided over by the most competent operators. On the mezzanine floor are reading and writing rooms and the Ladies' Parlor.

Bring Them Along!

Bring along your tennis racquet, your golf clubs, your bathing suit, your hunting togs and guns, your rod and reel, and your gum hat and slicker to keep you dry in the spray of the speed boat . . . bring them all, you may not think you'll need them, but a few weeks in the sunshine out-of-doors and then . . . . you'll wish you had.

Your Winter in Florida

IN PLANNING your winter in Florida, consider the many attractions of Winter Haven--"the City of One Hundred Lakes." Located in the rolling hills of "Imperial Polk County," amid the spring-fed crystal clear lakes and surrounded by citrus groves, Winter Haven is a city of about 5,000; a city of beautiful homes, fine churches, splendid schools, wide paved streets well lighted at night, and offers all the attractions and conveniences of an up-to-date modern city of double its size.

In Winter Haven, there are no extremes of temperature; its climate makes it indeed a "winter haven" where balmy breezes and bright warm sunshine make glorious days for rest or play.

Golf, tennis, bathing, boating and fishing (the many lakes teem with game fresh water fish) may be enjoyed every day in the year and for the sportsman who loves to camp and hunt, there are trips to the big cypress swamps and other places where wild turkey, deer, bear and other game abound.

Fine roads radiate in every direction and one may motor to any part of the state over well paved highways that run through grove and garden, along "the Ridge" and around the shores of crystal lakes, the scenery everchanging.

The HAVEN HOTEL is a modern hotel of the highest class and offers to the visitor in Winter Haven only the best in service and accommodations, its appointments and equipment meeting the requirements of the most exacting of winter guests.
